Rylee, the makers of Guitar Addict Products For Both PC's & Mobile Devices announce Guitar Fretboard Addict v1.5 and Bass Fretboard Addict v1.3. These latest versions add a new Key Select Option for practicing fretboard positions of notes that belong in a particular key. This is a great feature for developing fretboard movement inside of a musical key.

New Feature:

- Option to configure the key for practicing fretboard notes

General Features:

- Note modes for correlating pitch and reading standard music notation alongside the fretboard
- Fun Graphical and Flash Card game modes for learning the fretboard
- Two game types for learning the fretboard by notes or by position
- Powerful ear training mode with real guitar sounds
- Options to play the game to a tempo for challenging the player to think faster
- Options to work on specific strings or frets for isolation of a specific fretboard area to practice
- Displays how long it takes the player to answer each round

System Requirements:

- PC — Windows XP/Vista
- Mobile Device — Windows Mobile 2003/2003SE/5.0/6.0 touch screen devices

Cost: $14.99
