Harmony Central Launches Enhanced “Make Better Music” Newsletter

—Mobile-friendly, free newsletter brings Harmony Central’s “Greatest Hits” to subscribers—

Nashville, TN, February 1, 2016 – Harmony Central, the premier web site for all levels of musicians, has released the first “Make Better Music” newsletter. With a mobile-friendly, no-nonsense format for tablet, desktop, and smartphone, each issue features the cream of the latest articles, expert reviews, forum threads, and news items, along with a provocative “Dear Musician” editorial.

Sign-up is free at http://www.harmonycentral.com/newsletter_signup. Subscribers can opt out at any time, and email addresses are not shared with third parties. The current bi-weekly schedule is slated to expand to a weekly schedule later in the year.

Harmony Central Director Dendy Jarrett states, “With the wealth of information on HC, the ‘Make Better Music’ newsletter is a great way for the community to find out about the latest items of interest in a timely, efficient way. It also ties in with the recent, highly successful update that made the entire site mobile-friendly. We’re very happy to offer yet another service to the Harmony Central community.”
